

Mogall Woods

A massive forest inhabited by Fey and other strange beasts. It possesses a strange enchantment over it...most who enter find themselves horribly, horribly lost.

“...The Progenitor knows where the Fae are because of me. It knows they’re here, and it’s going to hurt them. Gods, I hope we can do something to protect them. Ha. Me, wanting to protect Fae. Pre-Collapse Xena would’ve been appalled...but shit, at least I’m trying to be a better person. Even if it’s just the fucking guilt eating me alive. Hope Icarus and us can work something out.” - Excerpt from Xena’s journal.
