

Cocytus, Inner Flame

He/Him

Twin brother of Amon. They are strikingly similar, and often work in tandem. The only discernible difference is that Cocytus has a tendency to share his personal gifts a little too eagerly. His blessings can tend to be placed irresponsibly, and perhaps cause large shifts and changes in his chosen.

Due to the separation of cultures between Draconic and otherwise, knowledge that Amon and Cocytus are twins has been lost to most scripture and followers.
